Quality Policy

The remit of Standex Electronics (UK) Ltd. is the manufacture, sale and distribution of standard and customer specific reed switches. We constantly strive to achieve consistently high levels of customer satisfaction by the timely provision of defect-free products and a commitment to satisfy all applicable requirements of BS EN ISO 9001:2015 and interested parties.

Through two way communication with all interested parties and data from relevant metrics we set out quality objectives. These objectives should aid our commitment to the continual development of our Quality Management System and processes.

These commitments will be achieved by:

- Assessing the strategic direction of the company through QMS reviews and by being customer focused,
- Risk based thinking to identify risk and opportunities for improvement,
- Evidence based decision making to enhance improvement strategy,
- Management of the relationships between the organisation and interested parties,
- Responsible leadership and development of employees,
- The utilisation of the latest technology to enhance our processes where appropriate,
- Ensuring that a safe working environment is maintained.
